A stunning French late 18th century Regence st. double framed giltwood mirror. The original beveled mirror plate is framed within an elegant tied fluted band. The outer original beveled mirror plates are set at an angle and are adorned with beautiful scrolled pierced foliate movements at each corner and with a finely carved foliate band extending along the border. An elegant mirrored gadroon band extends along the bottom of the majestic mirrored top crown with striking scrolled foliate movements framing the original mirror plate. At the top is a striking richly carved Fleur de Lys amidst charming flowers with lovely urn like designs at each side. All original gilt throughout.
