A handsome French late 19th century Louis XV st. Tulipwood, Kingwood, and Ormolu desk, signed by Krieger. The Bureau Plat desk is raised by elongated cabriole legs with fine pierced fitted foliate ormolu sabots and Tulipwood fillets. The scalloped shaped apron displays three drawers each decorated with beautiful veneered Tulipwood panels with lovely finely detailed foliate Ormolu keyhole escutcheons all framed within a delicate wood fillet with the sides and back decorated in the same manner. The top displays the original brown leather writing surface surrounded by veneered Tulipwood designs framed within a finely inlaid Kingwood border.
