A wonderful French late 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany and Brèche Violette marble console and matching mirror. The console is raised by two elegant cabriole legs with block feet decorated with a fine mottled foliate band and a carved fillet which extends up each leg to a carved rosette, laurel leaves and a wonderful finely detailed swaging berried laurel garland. Above each leg are carved block rosettes flanking the straight frieze with rounded sides each decorated with mottled bands and recessed designs showcasing the beautiful Mahogany wood grain. Above the original Brèche Violette marble top with a fine mottled border. The mirror is raised by a fine mottled band with striking columns lead up each side with richly carved intertwined berried laurel bands at each corner all below the scalloped top crown with an impressive central seashell reserve amidst lovely intricately detailed blooming flowers and additional smaller seashell reserves at each side. All original patina throughout.
