A sensational and most impressive French Louis XVI st. early 19th century column and bust ensemble. The giltwood column is raised by a octagon shaped base below the fluted column with chandelles in each flute. The top is flanked by two Aries heads with a central floral garland on both sides. Above lays a very large and extremely well executed bust of Marie Antoinette. The White Carrara marble bust is raised by a patinated bronze and onyx socle. Marie Antoinette with her hair tied in an updo is wearing a relief medallion around her neck of Louis XVI. All original gilt.
