A sensational and large scaled French Louis XVI st. mid 19th century ormolu and patinated bronze centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by a topic shaped feet with a richly decorated base. The base has a central bow with a swaging floral garland. Above are two patinated bronze winged cherubs in repose. One with an ormolu bow and the other with his quiver of arrows. Above is the lattice designed ormolu oval bowl with scrolled foliate handles. All original gilt.
