A most impressive and large scaled French mid 19th century Belle Epoque Period Giltwood and Breche Violette marble pedestal. The pierced oval pedestal is raised on a giltwood mottled plinth in a stunning satin and burnished finish below four heavily decorated and richly carved acanthus leaves and Fleur de Lys. Above is a wonderful mottled band following around the pedestal and centered by a lovely oval medallion with a central rosette. Leading up to the handsome and thick original marble top are additional scrolled designs and central seashell reserves.
