A high quality and large scale French mid 19th century Louis XIV st. Ormolu lamp. This wonderful candlestick mounted into a lamp is raised by a hexagonal shaped base with a mottled edge and egg and dart trim below a band with central seashells and foliage scrolls. Above is a curved support which raises the triangular shaped tapered fut with additional foliate designs and three charming and richly chased cherub faces. At the top is the large hexagon shaped candle cup with a reeded and floral design.
