An elegant French mid 19th century Louis XV st. rosewood and ormolu mounted three shelf Étagere. The Étagere has a scalloped back and an elaborately chased outer ormolu band with four scrolls, decorated with acanthus leaves. The inner back plate is fitted by its original mirror plate, to reveal the back of the items displayed, bordered by a mottled rosewood trim. The bottom is centered an ormolu rosette while the top displays a fanciful ormolu masculine mask. All original warm patina throughout.
