A beautiful and high quality French mid 19th century Louis XV st. Sarrancolin marble fireplace mantle. The mantel is raised by two elegantly scrolled jambs with mottled feet and beautiful richly carved scrolled foliate corner designs. The arabesque shaped frieze displays lovely scrolled sculpted fillets at the border, exceptional recessed designs, and a stunning finely detailed central seashell reserve. Above is the original top shelf showcasing the beautiful marble veins with a scalloped shape wonderfully executed triple mottled border.
