A spectacular French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. Baccarat crystal and ormolu centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by a square and mottled ormolu base with concaved corners and a richly chased moulded border above. The circular moulded support is decorated with a reeded and beaded trim. The elegant fluted leaf designed stem is repeated on the support above. The Baccarat crystal bowl has a diamond cut design with an ormolu foliate border below a beaded trim, flanked by acanthus leaf handles. The removable lid has an ormolu band and a similar cut design topped by a highly chased ormolu acorn finial, surrounded by a beaded border and an egg and dart design. All original gilt.
