An elegant and charming French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Vert de Patricia marble inkwell. The inkwell is raised by fine topie shaped feet below the elegantly shaped wrap around ormolu band with a fluted, berried laurel and beaded design. Above is the circular ink holder set on Vert de Patricia marble and displaying a lovely mottled base and additional richly chased berried laurel designs. The lid opens to reveal the original removable porcelain interior. All original gilt throughout.
