A handsome French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany, Ormolu and Rouge Catalan marble side table.

The rectangular table is raised on slender tapered Mahogany legs with twisted Ormolu trims, top mounts and foliate sabots. The legs are joined by a bottom Mahogany tier with concave sides and an Ormolu border. The frieze displays one single drawer with a richly chased circular Ormolu plaque of cherubs studying while flanked by elongated rectangular panels with Ormolu borders to each side. Above lays the Rouge Catalan marble top within an Ormolu gallery. All original rich patina and gilt throughout.
