An elegant French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. Silver plated and mirror centerpiece plateau. The Sur Tout de Table centerpiece displays an oblong oval shaped with a beveled mirror plate and is raised on four blocks with designs of rosettes below classical urns with leaves and foliate swags. The two sides have an apron with a central reserve of a circular medallion flanked by a cornucopia on each sided filled with blossoming flowers. The apron also is decorated by a Coeur de Rai pattern bottom trim and a top beaded trim. The two half round ends are designed with a double pierced gallery which surround the recessed planters at each end to display cut flowers. The outside of the half round ends are decorated by swaging floral garlands within recessed panels.
