A sensational and richly detailed French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. silvered bronze and Baccarat crystal centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by a triangular mottled base with concave sides. Above the base are three handsome and richly detailed intertwined dolphins with wonderful expressions. Supported by the base is the original Baccarat crystal gadroon shaped tapered bowl. The exceptionally detailed bowl displays a fine cut design. The bowl is finished with a decorative silvered bronze palmette rim and turned ribbon band above.

The centerpiece was given as a wedding gift to Mr. & Mrs. Gondrand on 9-22-1881 and is inscribed as such on the base.
