A superb French 19th century Louis XV st. Moucheté mahogany and ormolu center table/desk. The striking table is raised by elegant cabriole legs with fine fitted foliate ormolu sabots. A most decorative ormolu chute extends up each leg leading to charming richly chased foliate ormolu corner mounts. The scalloped shaped apron displays one drawer at the front decorated with a striking central foliate and family crest shaped ormolu mount flanked by fine Moucheté mahogany panels. The back is decorated in the same manner while each side displays an elegant arbalest shaped apron. The top showcases the stunning Moucheté mahogany grain and displays a fine mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
