A high quality French turn of the century Louis XV st. Tulipwood, Kingwood, Exotic Wood, Ormolu and Bohemian Breccia marble commode. The two drawer commode is raised by elegant cabriole legs decorated by top Ormolu foliate mounts above Ormolu chutes which lead to the pierced Ormolu sabots. The front as well as both sides of the commode have a wonderfully decorative floral marquetry. The two sans traverse drawers (without a cross bar) have the floral marquetry that goes from one drawer to the next. The drawers retain their original Ormolu handles and keyhole escutcheons. At the top lays its original and thick Bohemian Breccia marble with a bull nose edge.
