A striking French turn of the century Louis XVI st. ormolu and onyx side table. The circular table is raised by beautiful topie shaped feet with lovely ball supports, palmette accents, and beautiful foliate top caps. The legs display a fine fluted design and are each connected by a lovely concave stretcher and display elegantly curved foliate top caps. Above each leg are fine block rosettes set on hammered backgrounds flanking the pierced frieze with exceptional palmette designs. Above is the original green onyx top fitted within a richly chased wrap around berried laurel band.
