A striking and extremely decorative French turn of the century Louis XVI st. porcelain and ormolu lidded urn signed M.P. Sevres. The urn is raised by an elegant square ormolu base with concave corners and a beautiful wrap around mottled foliate band. Above the socle shaped pedestal support is the bowl shaped glazed porcelain body with a stunning and unique Lapis Lazuli like design. A lovely wonderfully detailed mottled ormolu band extends along the rim with richly chased masks of beautiful maidens amidst foliate designs flanking berried laurel branches tied with charming ribbons. Above the elegant, lightly curved neck is a fine berried laurel wrap around band at the border and the removable lid with a superb foliate finial which lifts off to reveal the signature and finished interior.
