A fine French turn of the century Ormolu and Nero Antique marble side table. The table is raised by a circular marble base below a reeded designed socle. The support has four Ormolu draped ribbons decorating the central circular fut. At the mid section are laurel swags held by rosettes and below a reeded band. Above are three palm fronds like scrolls leading up to the apron having scrolled foliate branches amidst flowers. The Nero Antique fitted marble top is surrounded by a reeded Ormolu edge.
