A wonderful and finely detailed French turn of the century Patinated Bronze statue of a parrot. This lovely statue of a parrot perched on a tree is supported on a root shaped base with five protruding Bronze feet. The tree displays intricately chased details with a smooth patinated finish and cut branches spread throughout the trunk. The tree forks at it's peak with the impressive Parrot perched above on clenched talons. The Parrot showcases exceptional plumage, a charming expression, and large scale feathers on its tail.
