A handsome French turn of the century Renaissance st. Wrought Iron chandelier. This statement making ten arm Wrought Iron chandelier displays unique pressed and concave bent designs with scrolled symmetrical movements. The central reserve between each arm is in the shape of a scrolled iron ribbon with a split bottom. The two split chains on each side of the chandelier join together and attach to an arbalest shaped iron top crown. Above is the original 9' long iron chain which can be shortened to the desired height needed.
