An elegant and high quality German 19th century Renaissance st. Ormolu box, by Erhard and Söhne. This stunning box is raised on gargoyle head feet below the straight and mottled apron. The body of the box above is richly decorated with flowing reliefs depicting scenes of humans, animals and mythological figures. At the top front of the box is a single keyhole and original key displaying the lion emblem of Erhard and Söhne, along with the letters "E S". The interior of the box is fabric lined, including the underside of the lid.
