A very elegant Japanese 19th century Imari porcelain and French Louis XV st. ormolu mounted centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by a pierced circular support with richly chased foliate scrolls. Flanking the support are two 'S' scrolled acanthus leaves. Above is the intricately decorated Imari urn with hand painted gilt foliate designs amidst colorful foliate and floral decorations. The urn is flanked by two 'C' scrolled handles decorated with acanthus leaves and flowers. The top pierced ormolu rim displays additional scrolled foliate movements and grape vines. Wonderful proportions throughout.
