A stunning and most decorative Japanese and French collaboration 19th century Louis XV st. Satsuma Porcelain and Ormolu urn. This finely detailed urn is raised by a pierced foliate decorated Ormolu base supported on four scrolling acanthus leaf feet. The exquisite tapered Satsuma Porcelain body is tastefully detailed with colorful floral designs and a centrally located hawk. On either side of the body are extensively detailed acanthus leaf handles that attach to the Ormolu rim above. The circular piece is decorated with an oval patterned foliate band, making this gorgeous piece even more eye catching.
