A very decorative and handsome 18th century urn from Sorano, dated 1747. The unusually large scale blue and white porcelain is accented with satyr masks amidst scenes of landscapes and people in classical dress. At the center of the front scene is a man in classical dress playing a harpsicord, and a castle at the back. At the neck is a colorful Italian family coat of arms. At each side are wonderfully scrolled serpent handles, with a mask below.
