A most impressive and monumentally scaled pair of 18th century Italian Louis XVI period Mecca and green polychrome wall brackets. Each unique scale wall bracket has a rectangular top shelf with cut corners above a mottled border with a reeded mecca pand. Below is a richly carved acanthus leaf with scrolls on each side. The brackets are decorated on both sides by a drape like design. The central mottled green polychrome is above a carved scroll and acanthus leaf. All original finish.
