A pair of lovely late 19th century Louis XVI st. twelve light ormolu and crystal chandeliers. The twisted ribbon designs 'C' scrolled arms branch out to a crystal dagger element and two lights each. They are decorated by clear, amethyst and smoke crystals modeled as large water drops with rosettes and pear shapes, with a large crystal ball at the bottom. The crystal fut is below the ormolu 'C' scrolled ormolu top crown with water drop crystals and garlands that attach to the crystal daggers.
