A most impressive and extremely elegant pair of Continental 19th century Biedermeier st. ebony, brass and burl ash wood consoles. Each demi lune shaped freestanding console is raised by three beautiful elegantly curved supports with most decorative fitted reeded brass bands. Each support is connected by a burl ash wood stretcher with a fine brass border. Above each leg are rectangular reeded fitted brass reserves flanked but fine panels and striking diamond shaped reserves. Above are the beautiful burl ash wood tops showcasing the superb wood grains framed within fine brass borders.
