A wonderful and extremely decorative pair of Continental 19th century Neo-Classical st. Majolica porcelain pedestals. The circular and colorful pedestals have a mottled base with a foliate design below elegant swaging floral garlands, held up by pink bows. The central columns feature stunning Grecian men and maidens in classical dress. One man leads a lion holding a staff. One maiden swings a knife, while the others hold various musical instruments. The top repeats the design of the base, with additional floral garlands and foliate designs.

These can be placed indoors or outdoors.
