A handsome and highly quality pair of Continental 19th century Renaissance st. Patinated Bronze and Ormolu lamps. Each wonderfully detailed lamp is atop a mottled edged triangular base with inverted sides while being supported on an Ormolu plate of the same shape. The lamps are raised on three griffin caryatids accented by scrolling foliate designs which surround a berried foliate reserve. Above the griffins is a bouquet of flowers and an Ormolu socle that introduces the scrolling acanthus leaf decorated shaft and Ormolu top cap.
