A pair of unique early 19th century Venetian giltwood and etched hexagon shaped mirrors. Foliate branches at the bottom are held together with a laurel leaf. Each mercury mirror plate is wonderfully etched, one of a draped maiden holding a leaf and the other of a soldier with a bow and arrow, both on clouds above a scrolled and star design. At the top an urn of prosperity with a bouquet of flowers that continues down each side, accented by a trumpet and a flame held together with a bow. All original gilt and mirror plate.
