A most elegant and uniquely scaled pair of French 18th century Louis XVI period giltwood and Noir Antique marble consoles. Each small scaled wall mounted console is raised by circular tapered fluted legs with lovely foliate carvings and block reserves connected by a beautiful scallop shaped fluted stretcher with a central reeded urn with charming blooming flowers. Above each leg are fine block rosettes flanking the mottled fluted frieze adorned with stunning richly carved swaging blooming flower garlands tied with a charming ribbon and pegs. Above is the original Noir Antique marble tops repeating the beautiful shape of the consoles below and with finely mottled borders.
