A handsome and finely detailed pair of French 18th century Neo-Greek st. Wrought Iron candle stands. Each fine candle stand, with its original patina, is raised by three 'S' scrolled crouching legs with paw feet. The base is decorated with foliate designs and scalloped reserves between each leg. The circular plinth with mottled edges displays a band of acanthus leaves below the shaft accented with fluted designs and a foliate central reserve. The top capital is decorated with dentil patterns which support the acanthus leaf decorated candle cup finished with a Coeur-de-Rai band.

Top Diameter: 7.25"
