An elegant true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, patinated bronze, wood, and white Carrara marble candelabra lamps. Each lamp is raised by a square wood base with a fine mottled border below the white Carrara marble support with lovely topie shaped feet and a fitted richly chased pierced foliate ormolu plaque. The central circular fluted columns display charming patinated bronze cherubs holding on to finely detailed wrap around vines with grape clusters and grape leaves. The elegantly scrolled arms are adorned with lovely acanthus leaves and display beautiful spiral fluted designs leading to Coeur de Rai bobeches and fine candle cups. At the center is a most decorative spray with an eternal flame finial. All original gilt throughout.
