A unique and most elegant pair of French 19th century Charles X Period Rosewood and Fruitwood tables. This most handsome pair of tables are raised by topie shaped feet supporting four finely inlaid arched legs holding a circular lower display surface. Four wonderful barley twist legs rise from display tier and support the exquisitely inlaid apron of the Rosewood top. The apron features foliate designs on all four sides and along the outer edges. A charming beaded edge frames the Rosewood top, inlaid with Fruitwood scrolled patterns centered by four birds surrounding the central foliate reserve.
