A striking and very high quality pair of French 19th century Charles X st. ormolu candelabra lamps. Each six arm lamp is raised by an elegant triangular base with cut corners, fine concave sides, and a superb richly chased wrap around berried laurel wrap around band. Three exceptional scrolled supports lead to beautiful palmettes and a fine wrap around foliate band leading to the beautiful tapered reeded central support with additional fine foliate bands. The six arms above each display beautiful reeded foliate designs leading to fine candle cups all in an exceptional satin and burnished finish. All original gilt throughout.
