An elegant and finely detailed pair of French 19th century Directoire st. Ormolu candlesticks. Each candlestick is raised by a triangular base with concave sides and recessed panel sides while being supported on three mottled ball feet. Above the base are three beautiful swans with their heads facing upwards surrounding the central fut. The fut is decorated with acanthus leaves around the base and berried laurel movements along the shaft. The top cap serves as the candle cup and is designed by bold layered acanthus leaves with a fine pedaled upper edge.
