A handsome and most impressive pair of French 19th century Empire st. Belle Époque period mahogany and ormolu armchairs. Each armchair is raised by square tapered legs with richly chased paw feet and finely carved recessed panels at the front, and elegant lightly curved legs at the back. Above the front legs are ormolu rosettes centering the pierced berried laurel and floral ormolu mounts at the straight frieze. Each arm displays impressive and richly detailed ormolu sphinges below an additional rosette and a lightly curved design which leads up to the upholstered back support. Above are most decorative scrolled designs with striking ormolu palmettes and beautiful central pierced berried laurel and floral ormolu mounts.
