An elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Empire st. Patinated Bronze and Ormolu candelabra lamps. Each three arm candelabra mounted into a lamp is raised on a square Ormolu plinth with a top reeded band. The square Patinated Bronze support above is decorated on three sides with Ormolu mounts of classically dressed maidens. Above is a tapered pedestal with a female mask below the Patinated Bronze standing Caryatids. Each have their arms crossed and hold foliate urns with two 'S' scrolled Ormolu arms. The arms are decorated with intricate foliage and lead to the Ormolu candle cup. On top of each Caryatid's head is a candle cup in the shape of a jug which supports the lamp cluster and shade.
