An exquisite pair of French 19th century Louis Philippe period solid Mahogany buffets circa 1830. Each two door three drawer buffet is raised by elegant reeded block feet below the straight frieze with one wide drawer. At the center are two doors that showcase the beautiful Mahogany wood grain and display fine bronze keyhole escutcheons and which open to reveal one shelf. The apron displays two drawers each displaying a most decorative recessed carved mottled circular pull and which center an additional single bronze keyhole escutcheon. Above a fine reeded wrap around band are three tiers showcasing the superb Mahogany grain with unique and most decorative carved scrolled acanthus leaf and beautiful circular mottled supports.
