A sensational and most impressive pair of French 19th century Louis XIV st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal girandole lamps. Each large scale nine arm lamp is raised by fine foliate lightly tapered feet below a most decorative triangular shaped base with concave sides centered by wonderfully executed palmette mounts and sphinges laying above. The striking central supports display fine urn shapes with richly chased berried garlands, large acanthus leaves, reeded designs and circular reserves of handsome finely detailed noblemen. Each of the nine elegantly scrolled arms are adorned with beautiful Baccarat crystal pendants leading to exceptional bobeches also adorned with additional charming small tear drop shaped crystals and fine foliate candle cups. The arms center magnificent crystal reserves encasing the supports and exceptional crystal daggers above.
