An elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XIV st. ormolu candelabras. Each five arm candelabra is raised on a square base with lovely cut corners and a richly chased mottled wrap around foliate band. The beautiful baluster shaped central support displays remarkable foliate designs and charming finely detailed portraits at each side. Above are four elegantly scrolled arms each adorned with large acanthus leaves leading to reeded bobeches and octagonal candle cups with intricately detailed foliate designs all centering a single arm decorated in the same manner. The cluster of arms above can be removed to create a single candlestick. All original gilt throughout.
