A striking pair of French 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood Bergères à Oreilles. Each armchair is raised by elegant scrolled legs with carved floral designs. Centering the arbalest shaped frieze is a beautiful and richly carved seashell reserve with charming foliate patterns. Each arm displays finely scrolled designs with a cushioned arm supports and a mottled design leading up each side. The upholstered back support displays a most impressive carved top crown of a foliate seashell flanked by fine foliate designs. All original gilt.
