A charming and most elegant pair of French 19th century Louis XV st. kingwood, charmwood, ormolu, and Trets marble side tables. Each table is raised by fine slender tapered legs with fitted foliate ormolu sabots. Each leg is connected by a lovely kidney shaped bottom tier with a striking quarter veneered kingwood top framed within a pierced ormolu gallery. The aprons display single drawers centered by richly chased ormolu tied ribbon keyhole escutcheons set on wonderfully executed and most decorative marquetry à la Reine backgrounds also repeated at each side and at the back. Above are the original Trets marble tops fitted within elegant pieced ormolu galleries.
