An exceptional and most decorative associated pair of French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu and glass lanterns. Each lantern displays lovely inverted flower bud finials and fine wrap around fluted bands accented with elegant central foliate reserves. Graceful scrolled acanthus leaves lead up each side along fine ormolu fillets framing the beautiful elegantly curved hand blown glass panes. At the fronts are single doors retaining their original keys and hardware. Each door opens to access the 'S' scrolled arms inside. The scalloped shaped tops display remarkable and most decorative palmettes amidst foliate designs and scrolled supports which lead to the top crowns.
