A stunning and monumentally scaled pair of French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu candelabras, signed Germain. Each uniquely designed five arm candelabra is raised by a fine mottled circular base with a lovely foliate and reeded design. The central supports also display striking scrolled foliate designs with beautiful richly chased female masks. Above are the impressive and most decorative arms each displaying unique and elegantly scrolled designs with large luxuriant acanthus leaves and exceptional finely detailed floral candle cups in rich satin and burnished finishes. At the centers are superb richly chased foliate and floral finials. All original gilt throughout.

Candle Height: 12"
