A stunning and tastefully decorated pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Baccarat Crystal and Ormolu Girondole lamps. Each six light lamp is raised on a circular Ormolu base with a mottled edge and six flat feet beneath. The fut is encased in a Baccarat Crystal body that leads upwards towards the six 'S' scrolled Ormolu arms that are decorated with Crystal reserves to the end. Each of the six arms end with decorated Crystal rosette candle cups that are surrounded by hanging asscher and emerald cut Crystals. Joining each of the six arms are swaging garlands of ball pendant Crystal chains. Above the arms are Ormolu sprays with attached rosette Crystals and round Crystal pendants with emerald Crystals hanging from the end. Above the Ormolu spray is an array of Ormolu scrolls with round cut Crystals attached throughout.

Hanging below each Ormolu scroll are additional round Crystal pendants, rosette Crystals, and emerald cut Crystals. The top crown of these exquisite girandoles display stunning central perfume bottle shaped Baccarat Crystals.
