An elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Ancient Green marble and Ormolu urns, signed F. Barbedienne. Each exquisite urn is raised by a square marble base with a bottom Ormolu plate and an Ormolu berried wreath band. Above the socle pedestal are finely chased foliate movements and striking Ormolu mounts leading up each side. Two charming young boys are holding draped berried laurel garlands amidst foliate patterns on a rich Vitruvian scrolled background. The mottled removable lids display fabulous top finals and foliate grape clusters above an acanthus leaf band at the rim. The urns and lids are also finished on the inside. All original gilt throughout.
