A stunning and very high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Mahogany and ormolu armchairs. Each "Bergères à Oreilles" armchair is raised by elegant circular tapered fluted legs with fine fitted ormolu chandelles, delicate foliate topie shaped feet and beautiful foliate top caps. Above each leg are striking block rosettes below additional fluted designs with fitted chandelles and large acanthus leaf ormolu mounts with a lovely berried laurel ormolu band extends along the lightly curved frieze and along the sides and back. The cushioned arms each display a fine scrolled movement with recessed designs decorated with fine foliate and berried laurel patterns, and a striking berried laurel band extended along the curved sides and top.
