A stunning and very high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period ormolu and Vert Campan marble lidded urns. Each urn is raised by a square Vert Campan marble base with fine foliate accents and a most elegant socle shaped pedestal support with richly chased acanthus leaf designs, lovely palmette designs, and a wrap around berried laurel garland. The beautiful baluster shaped Vert Campan marble bodies display impressive intertwined snakes leading up each side with intricate attention to detail and centering the elegantly curved richly chased foliate necks in a rich satin and burnished finish. Above are the removable lids with fine top acorn finials which lift off to reveal the finished interiors. All original gilt throughout.
